OUR USES AND DISCLOSURES

How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Help manage the health care treatment you receive

- ▶ We can use your health information and share it with professionals who are treating you.

Example: A doctor sends us information about your diagnosis and treatment plan so we can arrange additional services.*

Run our organization

- ▶ We can use and disclose your information to run our organization and contact you when necessary.
- ▶ We are not allowed to use genetic information to decide whether we will give you coverage and the price of that coverage. This does not apply to long term care plans.

Example: We use health information about you to develop better services for you.*

Pay for your health services

- ▶ We can use and disclose your health information as we pay for your health services.

Example: We share information about you with your dental plan to coordinate payment for your dental work.*

Administer your plan

- ▶ We may disclose your health information to your health plan sponsor for plan administration.

Example: Your company contracts with us to provide a health plan, and we provide your company with certain statistics to explain the premiums we charge.*

How else can we use or share your health information? We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues

- ▶ We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:
 - Preventing disease
 - Helping with product recalls
 - Reporting adverse reactions to medications
 - Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
 - Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone’s health or safety

Do research

- ▶ We can use or share your information for health research.

Comply with the law

- ▶ We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we’re complying with federal privacy law.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests and work with a medical examiner or funeral director

- ▶ We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.
- ▶ We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers’ compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

- ▶ We can use or share health information about you:
 - For workers’ compensation claims
 - For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
 - With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
 - For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

- ▶ We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

We never sell protected health information for marketing or fundraising purposes.

The HIPAA Privacy Rule generally does not “preempt” (or override) state privacy or other applicable laws that provide individuals with greater privacy protections. As a result, if any state privacy laws or other applicable federal laws provide for a stricter privacy standard, then we will follow the more strict state or federal laws.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- ▶ We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- ▶ We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- ▶ We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- ▶ We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of This Notice

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, on our web site, and we will mail a copy to you.
