Quartz Announces President and CEO Delays Retirement Due to COVID-19 Crisis

SAUK CITY, WISCONSIN – Quartz announced that Terry Bolz, President and Chief Executive Officer, has received Board of Directors (BOD) approval to delay his retirement from the organization in light of the ongoing coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic.

Terry was scheduled to leave in July 2020. He will now stay on with Quartz until January 2021. The long-time company top executive will continue to lead staff, assist the BOD and keep a much-needed steady hand to help manage the unprecedented and unpredictable effects on employees, businesses, members and across communities during this health and economic crisis.

“I am grateful to have the ability to delay my retirement, happy to stay on the job and help through this crisis,” Terry said. “I have been blessed to be part of the Quartz organization and many Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois communities, and want to do all within my ability to assist in the months ahead. I am committed to keeping our employees safe,” he added.

Meantime, the search process moves forward with finding a well-qualified successor for Terry.

Terry currently serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Quartz Health Solutions, Inc. Quartz manages nationally recognized, provider-sponsored health insurance plans – Quartz Health Plan Corporation, Quartz Health Insurance Corporation and Quartz Health Benefit Plans Corporation. These entities are co-owned by Gundersen Health System, UW Health and UnityPoint Health–Meriter.
