

Quartz's Med Assist Copay Assistance Program

Program changes for 2023

At Quartz, our high-cost specialty drugs pharmacy program centers on affordability and quality. We continue to work with manufacturers to help you cover costs for medications that support your well-being. Effective Jan. 1, 2023, Quartz is making small adjustments to the program.

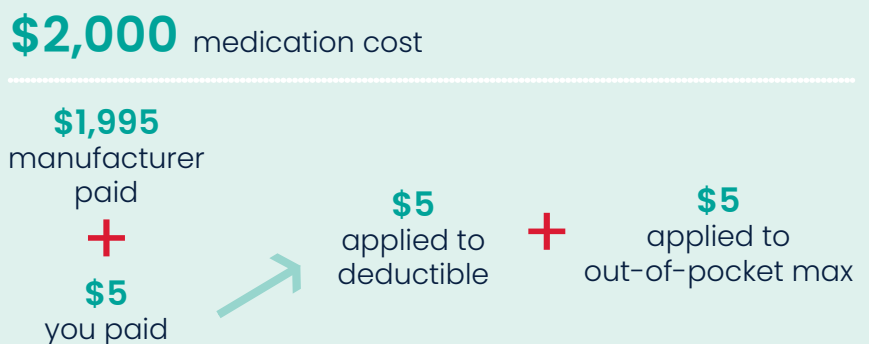

How copay assist works today:

The manufacturer pays an amount toward a medication cost, and you pay what is left of the cost, known as the member's copay. Both payments count toward your deductible and maximum out-of-pocket (MOOP) costs.

How the new program will work:

Only what you pay out-of-pocket for medications and other health services will count toward the deductible and maximum out-of-pocket.

Starting in 2023

This change will take effect on Jan. 1, 2023, or upon your group's effective or renewal date. Some manufacturers may not support cost share assistance after this program goes into effect.
